Bio:

Eric Herman's music videos, including the viral hits, "The Elephant Song," "Dance Like an Animal," and "Blackbeard, Bluebeard and Redbeard," have made him an emerging star in the Kids/Family music genre around the world, and his performances across the U.S.A., bursting with comedy, creativity, audience participation and outrageously fun songs, have endeared him as a favorite of kids, parents and event coordinators wherever he performs.

Eric's videos have nearly 50 million views on YouTube, and his videos and songs have been featured on PBS Kids, The Today Show, Fox & Friends, XM Radio, and in the Warner Bros. film, Life as We Know It. In 2010, "The Elephant Song" was covered for a multi-platinum CD/DVD release by Brazilian superstar, Xuxa. Eric has won national and international recognition, including awards from Parent's Choice, The John Lennon Songwriting Competition, ASCAP, the Pearl Awards and Just Plain Folks, and coverage in national publications such as Parenting, Cookie, Scholastic Parent & Child, Booklist and others. Also in 2010, Eric became one of only two children's music artists to be signed to BMG Rights Management (the other being The Wiggles).

Eric's music for kids is sophisticated but also very accessible, and his work reflects a balance of artistic brilliance and ear-catching familiarity. He confidently employs many different musical styles and even uses odd-timing to creative effect (e.g., "The Elephant Song," which changes between 5/4, 7/4, 6/4 and 4/4). He is a top-notch guitarist, vocalist and voice actor, adding real character to his recordings and performances. Above all, Eric has a unique sense of humor, with a great variety of comedy in his work in the vein of Monty Python, Shel Silverstein, Jack Black and Sesame Street.

Concerts/Assemblies:

In addition to performing his concerts for kids and families at a variety of events and venues, Eric also offers two entertaining motivational elementary school assembly programs; Got Character? and Bully Shmully.

Depending on the event, Eric is available to perform solo (just him and a guitar), with his "Invisible Band," as a duo (Eric Herman and Puppy Dog Dave), or with his full live band, Eric Herman and the Thunder Puppies.

"Amazing! One of the best shows I've seen in 20 years of putting on events for kids."

- Ron Merkin, Event Coordinator, Los Angeles CA

"Inspired, clever and nicely-produced rock tunes. Herman has his finger on the pulse of what works in producing and performing songs that appeal to children and adults alike."

- John Wood, Kidzmusic.com

"Eric has a really good message for kids and presents it in a way that is fun for everyone. I've never heard our students laughing so hard!"

- Jon Peterson, Principal, Washington Elem., Pendleton OR

"I see a lot of performers and Eric's show is one-of-a-kind children's entertainment. His approach is professional, educational and just plain fun!"

- Michelle Hanks, Cultural Arts Coordinator, Everett WA
